

EVENT OF THE SEASON

The return of that cyclonic musical cut-up, "The Head Waiters," at the Grand Opera House Monday, reconstructed on present-day lines, bubbling over with humorous fancies, and replete with fantastic antics, will be a red-letter musical comedy event, rollicking fun and "The Head Waiters" have become synonymous terms to the theatre-goer. As it first implies, it is all of snap and ginger. Besides, it has the prestige of big and brilliant success from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and in its present revised edition it is said to be a striking and pleasing departure from conventional stage comedy, for the performance ably teams with new and fetching situations, unique characters, bright dialogue, melodious music, and a perfect deluge of fun. All the funny comedians, pretty girls and interesting novelties of the season, together with a really clever vehicle for their display that is right up to the times from start to finish, are promised in the "Head Waiters," and past experience teaches the play-patron that he may depend upon the promises being fulfilled.

Sale on sale at box office Monday, December 29th, at 9 a. m. Curtain at 8:15.

The Roosevelt's Christmas Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—Christmas will be observed tomorrow in good old style at the White House. Preparations for the event have been in progress for over a week, and everyone, from the president himself down to little Quintin, has had something or other to do with the different features of the arrangements.

Express wagons, mail carriers and messengers bore numerous packages to the executive mansion today—presents to the Roosevelt family from friends and admirers throughout the country. Of course, it goes without saying that the children will be up with the birds to ascertain what Santa Claus has left in their stockings. Later they will assemble in the library to receive their more important gifts from the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Following the custom of last year, it has been decided to have no Christmas tree at the White House, but in the afternoon the Roosevelt children will go to the home of their uncle and aunt, Captain and Mrs. Cowles, to see a pretty Christmas tree and receive other presents.

Christmas dinner will be served in the evening. The principal feature will be the huge gobbler selected from the hundred or more turkeys received as presents at the White House yesterday and today. The remainder of the turkeys were distributed this afternoon with the compliments of President and Mrs. Roosevelt among the servants and attaches of the executive mansion.

Portland's Favorite.

Eather Lyon will be the new leading woman of the Baker theater company, at Portland, Oregon. Miss Lyon has the reputation of being one of the best leading women for stock work in this country. She was engaged a few days ago by George L. Baker, manager of the Baker Enterprises, upon her return from a tour of England. Last season Miss Lyon was leading woman for the Forepaugh stock company at Philadelphia, Pa.

Red Time

I take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. It is made of herbs and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's medicine. All druggists sell it at 25c and 50c. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. If you cannot get it, send for free samples. Address, Orator Woodward, LeRoy, N. Y.

Christmas Cheer for Jackies.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—Though

IT'S AN ILL OMEN.

Thinks the wife, to have the wedding ring slip from the finger. "Something is going to happen."

Something is happening. That ring when it was put there a few years ago. Now it slips off by its own weight. How thin the fingers have grown! And the face is and how thin the once plump form. Almost unconsciously the wife has been fading and wasting away. The strength given to children has never been regained. Drains which should have been stopped have been neglected.

That is a common experience with women, unless some friend has shared with them the secret of the strengthening and healing power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the periods, dries the drains which undermine the strength, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes the baby's advent practically painless and gives vigor and vitality to nursing mothers.

"Words cannot tell how grateful I am for your kind advice and good medicines," writes Mrs. John Cooke, of Hastings, Northumberland Co., Ontario. "I have been in poor health for four years back and this spring got so bad I could not do my work. I went to the doctor and he said I had ulceration and falling of the internal organs, but thought I would try your 'Favorite Prescription.' I took five bottles and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of Dr. Pierce's Pellets, and I can safely say that I never felt better in my life."

far from home, the blue-jackets and marines on duty in Isthmian waters are to have plenty of Christmas cheer, thanks to the foresight and thoughtfulness of Uncle Sam. According to a dispatch received at the navy department the supply ship Culebra has arrived safely at Colon with a big cargo of supplies for the warships on the eastern and western sides of the Isthmus. The Culebra's cargo includes 300,000 pounds of dressed beef, 20,000 pounds of mutton and 10,000 pounds of turkey. There is also on board a great quantity of plum pudding. The turkey and plum pudding will be dished out in liberal quantities tomorrow when the jackies sit down to their Christmas dinner.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the overfed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among those people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system, and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.

More About Wood.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The war department this afternoon made public a letter from General Wood, written in Manila July 28th, calling attention to the attacks made upon his character, and requesting the war department to investigate them. Wood inclosed in the letter various exhibits, and a private letter bearing on his conduct in Cuba.
